

SCARCITY CONFLICT & SECURITY:

The Future of Water for Israel & Her Neighbors

Mon. June 1, noon to 1:30 pm

Benson Hotel, 309 SW Broadway
$20 per person includes lunch

BIO: Gabriel Eckstein is the George W. McCleskey Professor of Water Law at Texas Tech University and currently a visiting professor at Lewis & Clark Law School. He is a recognized expert in international water law and policy and has served as an expert advisor/consultant on U.S. and international environmental and water issues to various organizations, including the United Nations and U.S. Agency for International Development. Recently, Professor Eckstein served as a neutral advisor in Track II negotiations between Israelis and Palestinians on trans-boundary freshwater resources in the Middle East.

To register, visit www.jewishportland.org or call Becka Ross at 503-245-6219. For more information, contact Bob Horenstein, Community Relations Director, at bob@jewishportland.org or 503-245-6496.

This program is made possible by your generous donations to the Jewish Federation of Greater Portland

Gabriel Eckstein
Lewis & Clark Law School

JEWISH FEDERATION of
GREATER PORTLAND
Community Relations Committee

Harold Schnitzer Family Program in Judaic Studies

 Portland State
UNIVERSITY