

Curriculum Vitae

Salman M. A. Salman

Salmanmasalman@gmail.com

www.salmanmasalman.org

Dr. Salman M. A. Salman is the Editor-in-Chief of Brill Research Perspectives, International Water Law; a Fellow, International Water Resources Association (IWRA), and an academic researcher and consultant on water law and policy. Until December 2009 he was Lead Counsel with the Legal Vice Presidency of the World Bank, and the Bank's adviser on water law, as well as on the environmental and social safeguard policies. Before joining the World Bank, Dr. Salman worked as a Legal Officer with the International Fund for Agricultural Development of the United Nations (IFAD), in Rome, Italy (1981–1983). Prior to that, he was a lecturer at the Faculty of Law of the University of Khartoum in Sudan (1978–1981), and a teaching assistant, (1972–1977). Dr. Salman obtained his LL.B. from the University of Khartoum, Sudan (1972); and holds an LL.M. (1974), and a J.S.D. (1977), both from Yale Law School, New Haven, Connecticut, USA.

Water Law

Dr. Salman started working on water law for the World Bank in 1993, and was the first lawyer to be appointed by the World Bank as the Water Law Adviser. He handled in that capacity a vast array of issues on national and international water law and policy, including giving advice on and assisting with water legislation, water institutions, water environmental issues, international water treaties and conventions, international water disputes, dam safety legislation, as well as water resources projects, particularly the interpretation and application of the World Bank Policy for Projects on International Waterways. He organized a number of conferences at the World Bank on major water issues, including International Watercourses, Groundwater, Water Users' Associations, and Institutional Reform on Irrigation and Drainage, and had convened and/or chaired many sessions during the annual World Bank Water Weeks (1993 to 2009). He handled a number of complex water assignments for the Bank including the Baglihar difference over the Indus River (India/Pakistan), the dispute over the Pulp Mills Projects on the Uruguay River (Argentina/Uruguay), the Bujagali Hydropower Project on the Nile in Uganda, and the Red Sea Dead Sea Water Conveyance Study. He was the Manager of the Water Legislation and National Strategies Window of the World Bank Netherlands Water Partnership Program (BNWPP) (2000 – 2009).

Dr. Salman assisted in the preparation of water legislation in a number of countries including Bhutan, Kazakhstan, Malawi, Namibia, Saudi Arabia, South Africa and Yemen. He also assisted with the preparation of the legal instruments for water users' associations in a number of countries in Central Asia, South Asia, Africa and the Middle East, gave presentations on this topic to a number of governmental officials, farmers' organizations, and academic institutions, and led the work in this area for some time in the Gezira Scheme in the Sudan (2002 – 2010).

He also assisted with the preparation and negotiations of a number of water treaties, including the SADC Protocol, the Senegal Water Charter, and the Guarani Aquifer Memorandum of Understanding. He was also a member of the international water lawyers team that helped explain and propagate the UN Watercourses Convention until its entry into force in August 2014.

Operational Work

Before his designation to handle water law in 1994, Dr. Salman worked as an operational lawyer handling development projects for a number of countries, including China, Malaysia, Mongolia, Korea (East Asia), India and Bangladesh (South Asia), and Botswana, Somalia and Tanzania (Africa), focusing mainly on water supply, irrigation, agriculture and rural development projects (1983–1993). He participated in that capacity in a number of preparation, appraisal and supervision missions, and drafted and negotiated the legal documents for such projects. He handled similar operational work with IFAD (1981 – 1983) for a number of African, Asian, and Middle Eastern countries including Botswana, China, Egypt, Ethiopia, India, Jordan, Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, Yemen and Zambia.

Safeguard Policies

In addition to water law, Dr. Salman worked (1997 – 2009) as an adviser on the World Bank environmental and social safeguard policies (environmental assessment, natural habitats, physical cultural resources, forests, pesticides, safety of dams, involuntary resettlement, indigenous peoples, disputed areas and international waterways, as well as the disclosure policy), with special emphasis on the international law principles associated therewith. Mr. Salman assisted the Bank Task Teams with the interpretation and application of those policies, and provided extensive training to the staff thereon. He was a member of the World Bank Team that prepared the Bank's Policy on Involuntary Resettlement (2001), as well as the Sourcebook on the Policy (2005); and was the co-author of the Bank's Policy on Indigenous Peoples (2005), and one of the authors of the Guidebook on the Policy (2010). He presented and discussed this Policy at a number of global forums, including the UN Commission for Human Rights, UN Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, and at roundtable discussions with NGOs and Indigenous Peoples organizations. He provided extensive training on the safeguard policies to the Bank headquarters and field staff, as well as governments' officials from varying countries and NGOs and academic institutions.

In connection with his work on the safeguard policies, Dr. Salman was the legal member of the Bank teams that addressed the work of (i) the World Commission on Dams Report (Dams and Development, A New Framework for Decision-making, 2000), (ii) the Extractive Industries Review (2003), and (iii) the Narmada Dam and Water Projects that preceded the safeguard policies (1992–2004). He also worked on a number of Inspection Panel cases including Mumbai Urban Transport and Ecodevelopment (India), Highlands Water Project (Lesotho/South Africa), Third Power, Fourth Power and Bujagali Hydro-power Projects (Uganda), and Arun Hydropower (Nepal).

He served as a member of the Legal Vice Presidency Human Rights Team (2002- 2007), that outlined the World Bank approach to human rights in its projects and policy work, and co-authored the book on the Human Right to Water (see Publications Below).

Teaching Experience

Dr. Salman taught as a lecturer (the title changed to assistant professor in 1985) at the Faculty of Law of the University of Khartoum (1978-1981), and chaired a number of academic committees, including the Curriculum Revision Committee, the Research Committee, as well as the Library Committee. He also worked as a teaching assistant at the same Faculty of Law (1972-1977).

He was a visiting professor with the International Islamic University Malaysia in Kuala Lumpur, May – June 2013, where he gave lectures, reviewed the syllabus of the Law school and made recommendations, advised graduate students, and wrote a proposal on a course on national and international water law.

He was an external examiner for PhD and Masters degree thesis with a number of universities including Pacific McGeorge Law School, University of Dundee Centre for Water Law, Policy and Science, and Loyola University of Chicago Law School.

He has given lectures on various legal and policy issues on national and international water resources at a number of universities, including Yale University, University of Maryland, University of Dundee, Georgetown University, George Washington University, American University, Johns Hopkins University, New York University, Texas Tech University, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), University of Geneva, University of Khartoum, Arizona State University, and McGeorge School of law of the University of the Pacific. He has also given keynote addresses and presentations at a number of conferences, workshops and seminars, including the World Water Forums, the World Bank annual water weeks, as well as the American Society of International Law (ASIL) and the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS).

He was selected by The Hague Academy of International Law as the Director for the Centre for Research and Studies for the 2001 session on “Water Resources and International Law,” where he taught and supervised 12 participants, most of them at the doctoral level (August – September 2001). The academic work undertaken at that session has been published by The Hague Academy in 2005.

He provided extensive training to Bank headquarters and field staff, as well as government officials from varying countries, both in Washington and at the respective countries, on national and international water law and policy issues, as well as the safeguard policies, their application to the Bank operations and their interface with international law.

He assisted the Permanent Court of Arbitration in The Hague in organizing a global seminar on “Resolution of International Water Disputes” in 2002, which was attended by more than 100 participants from all over the world, where he gave a major presentation. The proceedings of the seminar were published in 2003.

He taught international water law at the Arab Water Academy training session on Water Diplomacy (September 2010) at Abu Dhabi, the University of Geneva session of the United Nations International Law Seminar (July 2011), and the Arab Water Council conference in November 2011.

He reviewed, commented on and wrote the Preface for the publication of the International Law Development Organization (IDLO) and the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL) “Sustainable Water Management - Compendium of Legal Best Practices, 2011.”

Dr. Salman has been selected as an honorary associate at the University of Dundee/UNESCO Centre for Water Law, Policy and Science (1998 to present); and as a Fellow with IWRA (2012).

Membership of Professional Organizations and Committees

Dr. Salman has been elected/selected as a:

- (i) Fellow, International Water Resources Association (IWRA) 2012.
- (ii) Member of the Executive Committee of IUCN Commission on Environmental Law (CEL), Specialist Group on Water and Wetlands; 2009 to present;
- (iii) Director, International Water Resources Association (IWRA) 2007–2010; and a member of IWRA since 1998 (Montpellier, France);
- (iv) Member of the International Water Academy since 2004 (Oslo, Norway);
- (v) Member of the International Association of Water Law (AIDA) since 2002 (Rome, Italy);
- (vi) Member of the Water Resources Committee of the International Law Association (ILA) 1999-2007 (London, UK);
- (vii) Member of the Water Law Committee of the International Bar Association (ILA) 1999–2002 (London, UK);
- (viii) Member of the Utton Transboundary Resources Center, Advisory Committee on Inter-states Water Compacts (University of New Mexico) 2005–2006;
- (ix) Member of the World Bank Water Sector Board, as well as all its predecessors, (1993 to 2009); and
- (x) Member of the Sudan Working Group of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, 2009 to present.

Awards

Dr. Salman received the Award of the International Water Resources Association (IWRA) for the best article published in Water International Journal twice. The first was in 2003, at the IWRA World Water Congress in New Delhi, the article entitled “From Marrakech, Through The Hague to Kyoto, Has the Global Debate on Water Reached a Dead End?” The second in 2013 at the IWRA World Water Congress in Edinburgh in 2015, the article entitled “The Nile Basin Cooperative Framework Agreement – A Peacefully Unfolding African Spring?” He also received an award from the World Bank Legal Vice Presidency for his work on Water Law in 2003.

Publications, Editorial Work and Articles Review

Dr. Salman has published extensively in the area of international and national water law and policy. Some of his books have been translated to, and published in Arabic, Chinese, French, and Russian (see Publications Below). He was the editor of the “Law, Justice, and Development Series” of the World Bank (2003 - 2009). He has served as a member the Editorial Board of the journals: (i) “Water International” (2003 - 2007), and (ii) Water Policy (since 2007). He was a member of the “World Bank Editorial Committee” 2004-2009. This is the Committee that sets the policy for, and oversees, the entire World Bank publication work. He also served as a member of the Editorial Board for The World Bank Legal Review – Law, Equity, and Development, Volume 2 (2006). He is currently the Editor-in-Chief of Brill Research Perspectives, International Water Law Journal.

He has been reviewing and evaluating articles for a number of journals, including the Natural Resources Forum; Water International; Water Policy; International Negotiations; Journal of Peace Research; Arab Geographer; Law and Social Justice and Global Development, and Hydrological Science Journal.

PUBLICATIONS

Books

1. The World Bank Policy for Projects on International Waterways – An Historical and Legal Analysis (Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, Legal Aspects of Sustainable Development Series, The Hague, 2009; Law, Justice, and Development Series, The World Bank, 2009).
2. Regulatory Frameworks for Water Resources Management – A Comparative Study, with Daniel Bradlow; Law, Justice, and Development Series, The World Bank, (2006); available (PDF) in Arabic .
3. Water Resources and International Law, with Laurence Boisson de Chazournes (co-editors and contributors); The Hague Academy of International Law and Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, The Hague, (2005).
4. The Human Right to Water – Legal and Policy Dimensions, with Siobhan McInerney Lankford; Law, Justice, and Development Series, The World Bank, (2004).
5. Conflict and Cooperation on South Asia’s International Rivers – A Legal Perspective, with Kishor Uprety; Kluwer Law International, International and National Water Law and Policy Series, The Hague, (2002); also published under the Law, Justice, and Development Series, The World Bank (2003).
6. Regulatory Frameworks for Dam Safety – A Comparative Study, with Daniel Bradlow and Alessandro Palmieri; Law, Justice, and Development Series, The World Bank, (2002). Published also in Chinese (2003); Russian (2003); and French (2003).
7. Institutional Reform for Irrigation and Drainage - Proceedings of a World Bank Workshop, with Fernando Gonzalez (co-editors and contributors); World Bank Technical Paper No. 524, (2002).
8. Groundwater: Legal and Policy Perspectives, (editor and contributor); World Bank Technical Paper No. 456 (1999); published in Arabic (2003).
9. International Watercourses – Enhancing Cooperation and Managing Conflict with Laurence Boisson de Chazournes (co-editors and contributors); World Bank Technical Paper No. 414 (1998); published also in Arabic (1998); and French (1999); and in Russian by the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UN/ECE) (1998).
10. The Legal Framework for Water Users’ Associations – A Comparative Study; World Bank Technical Paper No. 360 (1997), (second printing 1999, third printing 2002); published also in Arabic (1997), and Russian (1998).

Articles and Book Chapters

1. Entry into Force of the UN Watercourses Convention – Why should it Matter? 31 International Journal of Water Resources Development, 2015.
2. Specially Invited Opinions and Research Reports of the International Water Law Project on the Entry into Force of the UN Watercourses Convention 2014, Part two, 17

Water Policy, 2015 (co-author of the conclusion with Gabriel Eckstein, editor), (forthcoming).

3. Specially Invited Opinions and Research Reports of the International Water Law Project on the Entry into Force of the UN Watercourses Convention 2014, Part One 16 Water Policy 2014, pages 1198 – 1217, (Gabriel Eckstein, editor; author contribution entitled Where are the Nile Basin Countries?)

4. The Human Right to Water and Sanitation: Is the Obligation Deliverable? 39 Water International 2014, at 969.

5. Santa Cruz Declaration on the Global Water Crisis – A Comment, 39 Water International (2014) 246, at 251.

6. Water Resources in the Sudan North South Peace Process and the Ramifications of the Secession of South Sudan, in Water and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding (Erika Weinthal, Jessica Troell, and Mikiyasu Nakayama, editors; Environmental Law Institute, Washington DC; Earthscan, London, 2014) 237.

7. Misconceptions Regarding Interpretation of the UN Watercourses Convention, in The UN Watercourses Convention in Force - Strengthening International Law for Water Management (F. Rocha Loures & A. Rieu-Clarke, eds, Earthscan, London 2014) 28.

8. South Sudan Road to Independence – Broken Promises and Lost Opportunities, 26 Pacific McGeorge Global Business and Development Law Review (2013) 343.

9. The Nile Basin Cooperative Framework Agreement – A Peacefully Unfolding African Spring? 38 Water International (2013) 17.

10. Mediation of International Water Disputes - The Indus, the Jordan and the Nile Basins Interventions in L. Boisson de Chazourens, C. Leb, & M. Tignino (eds.), International Law and Freshwater: The Multiple Challenges, (Edward Elgar Publishing Ltd, Cheltenham, 2013) 360.

11. The Abyei Territorial Dispute between North and South Sudan: Why has its Resolution Proven Difficult? in Land and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding (Jon Unruh and Rhodri Williams, editors; Environmental Law Institute, Washington DC; Earthscan, London, 2013) 25.

12. The Human Right to Water – Challenges of Implementation, American Society of International Law, Proceedings of the 106th Annual Meeting, 2012, at 44

13. Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam – Challenges and Opportunities, in The CIP Report (Center for Infrastructure Protection), Volume 10, No. 4, at 21, October 2011 (University of George Mason, School of Law).

14. The World Bank Policy and Practice for Projects Affecting Shared Aquifers, 36 Water International, 595, (2011).

15. The New State of South Sudan and the Hydro-politics of the Nile Basin, 36 Water International, 154 (2011).

16. The Baardhere Dam and Water Infrastructure Project in Somalia – Ethiopia's objection and the World Bank Response, Hydrological Sciences Journal, 56(4), 630 (2011).

17. Legal Aspects of Sharing and Management of Transboundary Waters in South Asia – Preventing Conflicts and Promoting Cooperation, Hydrological Sciences Journal, 56(4), 641 (2011).

18. The Future of International Water Law – Regional Approaches to Shared Watercourses? in Looking to the Future: Essays on International Law in Honor of W.

Michael Reisman (Arsanjani, Cogan, Sloane and Wiessner, eds.) Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, The Hague, 907 (2011).

19. Downstream Riparians Can Also Harm Upstream Riparians – The Concept of Foreclosure of Future Uses, 35 Water International 350 (2010).

20. World Bank Policy for Projects on International Waterways, in Sharing Water, Sharing Benefits: Working Towards Effective Transboundary Water Resources Management (Aaron Wolf, ed., UNESCO and Oregon State University 2010) 128.

21. The World Bank and the Gezira Scheme in the Sudan – Political Economy of Irrigation Reforms (World Bank Report No. 96873, June 2010), available at: <http://documents.worldbank.org/curated/en/2010/06/16371308/sudan-world-bank-gezira-scheme-sudan-political-economy-irrigation-reforms>

22. The Niger River, Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law, (Oxford University Press 2009), available at: http://www.mpepil.com/subscriber_article?script=yes&id=/epil/entries/law-9780199231690-e1325&recno=1&author=Salman%20%20Salman%20MA

23. Water Resources in the Sudan North-South Peace Process – Past Experience and Future Trends, 16 African Yearbook of International Law 299 (2008).

24. The Baglihar Difference and its Resolution Process – A Triumph for the Indus Waters Treaty? 10 Water Policy, 105 (2008).

25. The Evolution, Codification and Current Status of International Water Law, UN Audiovisual Library of International Law, 2008, available in both English and Arabic at: <http://www.un.org/law/avl/>

26. The Helsinki Rules, the UN Watercourses Convention and the Berlin Rules: Perspectives on International Water Law, 23 International Journal of Water Resources Development, 619 (2007).

27. The United Nations Watercourses Convention Ten Years Later – Why Has its Entry into Force Proven Difficult? 32 Water International, 1 (2007).

28. Oceans and Freshwater Resources, with David Freestone, Chapter 15, The Oxford Handbook of International Environmental Law, (Daniel Bodansky, Jutta Brunnee and Ellen Hey, editors), Oxford University Press, 337 (2007).

29. The Indus Waters Treaty, the Baglihar Difference and ICSID Administration of the Proceedings, (with Eloise Obadia), Volume 23, No 2, News from ICSID (International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes), at 1 (2006).

30. International Water Disputes – A New Breed of Claims, Claimants and Settlement Institutions, 31 Water International 1 (2006).

31. Reports on International Organizations and Bodies – The World Bank, with Charles Di Leva and Others, Volume 17, Yearbook of International Environmental Law, Oxford University Press, 784 (2006).

32. The World Bank's New Policy on Indigenous Peoples, Volume 2, The World Bank Legal Review, 525 (2006).

33. Evolution and Context of International Water Resources Law, in Water Resources and International Law; Chapter 2, (S. Salman and Boisson de Chazournes (co-eds.) The Hague Academy of International Law and Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, 45 (2005).

34. United Nations General Assembly Resolution: International Decade for Action, Water for Life, 2005-2015, 30 Water International 415 (2005).

35. Reports on International Organizations and Bodies – The World Bank, with Charles Di Leva and Others, Volume 16, Yearbook of International Environmental Law, Oxford University Press, 810 (2005).
36. Shared Watercourses in the Southern African Development Community: Challenges and Opportunities, 6 Water Policy, 25 (2004).
37. Reports on International Organizations and Bodies – The World Bank, with Charles Di Leva and Others, Volume 15, Yearbook of International Environmental Law, Oxford University Press, 677 (2004).
38. From Marrakech Through The Hague to Kyoto – Has the Global Debate on Water Reached a Dead End? Part Two, 29 Water International, 11 (2004).
39. From Marrakech Through The Hague to Kyoto – Has the Global Debate on Water Reached a Dead End? Part One, 28 Water International, 491 (2003).
40. Good Offices and Mediation and International Water Disputes, in Resolution of International Water Disputes, The Permanent Court of Arbitration/Peace Palace Papers, edited by the International Bureau of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, Kluwer Law International, The Hague, 155 (2003).
41. Reports on International Organizations and Bodies – The World Bank, with David Freestone and Others, Volume 14, Yearbook of International Environmental Law, Oxford University Press, 774 (2003).
42. Water Resources and International Law, The Hague Academy of International Law, Centre for Studies and Research in International Law and International Relations, Report of the co-directors, 2001 Session, Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, The Hague, 63 (2002).
43. The Abuja Ministerial Declaration on Water – A Milestone or Just Another Statement? 27 Water International, 442 (2002).
44. Regulatory Framework for Participatory Irrigation Management: An Overview; in Slavko Bogdanovic, (ed.) Legal Aspects of Sustainable Water Resources Management, (YuAWL and IWLR) 343 (2002); also published in Institutional Reform for Irrigation and Drainage (Gonzalez and Salman, eds.) 59 (2002).
45. Reports on International Organizations and Bodies – The World Bank, with David Freestone and Others, Volume 13, Yearbook of International Environmental Law, Oxford University Press, 797 (2002).
46. Inter-states Water Disputes in India - An Analysis of the Settlement Process, 4 Water Policy, 223 (2002).
47. International Groundwater Law and the World Bank Policy for Projects on Transboundary Groundwater, with Raj Krishna; in Aaron Wolf, (ed.) Conflict Prevention and Resolution in Water Systems, (Edward Elgar Publishing, Cheltenham, UK) 360 (2002); also published in “Groundwater: Legal and Policy Perspectives (S. Salman, ed.) 163 (1999).
48. Institutional Reform for Irrigation and Drainage, (with Fernando Gonzalez), Introduction, in, Institutional Reform for Irrigation and Drainage (Gonzalez and Salman, eds.) 1 (2002).
49. Reports on International Organizations and Bodies – The World Bank, with David Freestone and Others, Volume 12, Yearbook of International Environmental Law, Oxford University Press, 763 (2001).

50. Legal Regime for Use and Protection of International Watercourses in the Southern African Region: Evolution and Context, 41 Natural Resources Journal, 981 (2001).
51. Dams, International Rivers and Riparian States: An Analysis of the Recommendations of the World Commission on Dams, 16 American University International Law Review, 1477 (2001).
52. The Legal Response to the World's Water Crisis: What Legacy From The Hague? What Future in Kyoto, (with Patricia Wouters and Patricia Jones) 4 University of Denver Water Law Review, 418 (2001).
53. Revised Protocol on Shared Watercourses in the Southern African Development Community (SADC), Introductory Note, 40 International Legal Materials, 317 (2001).
54. Sharing Rivers for Peace, Development and Security: An Analysis of the Recommendations of the World Commission on Dams, 26 Water International, 283 (2001).
55. Reports on International Organizations and Bodies – The World Bank, with David Freestone and Others, Volume 11, Yearbook of International Environmental Law, Oxford University Press, 755 (2000).
56. International Rivers as Boundaries – The Dispute over Kasikili/Sedudu Island and the Decision of the International Court of Justice, 25 Water International, 580 (2000).
57. Hydro-Politics in South Asia: A Comparative Analysis of the Mahakali and the Ganges Treaties, (with Kishor Uprety), 39 Natural Resources Journal, 295 (1999).
58. Sharing the Ganges Waters Between India and Bangladesh – An Analysis of the 1996 Treaty, in International Watercourses (Salman and Boisson de Chazournes, eds.) 127 (1998).
59. International Watercourses – Enhancing Cooperation and Managing Conflict, Conclusion, in International Watercourses (Salman and Boisson de Chazournes, eds.) 167 (1998).
60. Co-Management of Resources: The Case of the Ganges River; American University, Center for the Global South, online Publications, (October 1998), available at <http://www.american.edu/maksoud/water98/present1.htm>.
61. Lay Tribunals in the Sudan: An Historical and Socio-Legal Analysis, 21 Journal of Legal Pluralism and Unofficial Law, 671 (1983).
62. Legal Profession in the Sudan: A Study of Legal and Professional Pluralism, in C. J. Dias et al (editors), Lawyers in the Third World: Comparative and Developmental Perspectives, 226 (Scandinavian Institute of African Studies, Uppsala, 1981).

Short Articles and Reports

Published a number of short articles in “The Nature of Law,” (<http://go.worldbank.org/EMSVNNE5X0>) the Newsletter of the Environmental and International Law Group of the Legal Vice Presidency of the World Bank:

1. The Abyei Territorial Dispute between Northern and Southern Sudan and the Decision of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, Issue 10, September 2010.
2. The Fifth World Water Forum, Issue 9, September 2009.

3. The Inter-American Commission on Human Rights Grants Precautionary Measures in Favor of Panama's Ngöbe Indians (with Yuan Tao) Issue 9, September 2009.
4. Belize and Guatemala Conclude an Agreement to Submit a Long-Standing Territorial Dispute to the International Court of Justice (with Antón Leis García) Issue 8, March 2009.
5. United Nations General Assembly Adopts a Resolution on Transboundary Aquifers, Issue 8, March 2009.
6. The International Law Commission Adopts Draft Articles on the law of Transboundary Aquifers, Issue 7, September 2008.
7. The Right to be Informed of the Vienna Convention Rights—An update on the Provisional Measures Granted by the International Court of Justice (with Sachiko Morita), Issue 7, September 2008.
8. The Right to be Informed of the Vienna Convention Rights (with Sachiko Morita) Issue 6, April 2008.
9. The Adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, Issue 5, October 2007.
10. Neutral Expert Renders his Decision on the Baglihar Difference, The Nature of Law, Issue 4, April 2007.
11. River Uruguay Dispute before the ICJ (Orders on Provisional Measures), The Nature of Law, (with Maurizio Ragazzi) Issue 4, April 2007.
12. The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, The Nature of Law, (with Maurizio Ragazzi) Issue 3, October 2006.
13. The Fourth World Water Forum, The Nature of Law, Issue 2, July 2006.
14. River Uruguay Dispute Before the ICJ, The Nature of Law, (with Maurizio Ragazzi) Issue 2, July 2006.

Contribution to Reports and other Publications

1. Sharing Water, Sharing Benefits: Working Towards Effective Transboundary Water Resources Management (A Graduate/Professional Skills-Building Workbook, adapted from the World Bank International Waters Course, compiled and edited by Aaron Wolf, and developed by a number of contributors including myself, (UNESCO, and Oregon State University, 2010).
2. The World Bank and the Gezira Scheme in the Sudan – Political Economy of Irrigation Reforms, The World Bank, June 2010 (sole author).
3. World Development Report – Development and Climate Change (The World Bank, 2010).
4. Making the Most of Scarcity – Accountability for Better Water Management in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA Development Report, The World Bank, 2007).
5. Water Resources Sector Strategy – Strategic Directions for World Bank Engagement (The World Bank 2004).
6. Involuntary Resettlement Sourcebook – Planning and Implementation in Development Projects (The World Bank, 2004).
7. National Sovereignty and International Watercourses (Green Cross International, Geneva, 2000).

8. India: Water Resources Management Sector Review: (Inter-Sectoral Water Allocation) and (The Irrigation Sector), (Allied Publishers, New Delhi, 1999).

Publications in Arabic

1. Published a large number of short articles in the Sudanese newspapers and inter-net web sites (about 50 articles by November 2012) on various issues on the Nile Basin, the Nile agreements, the Cooperative Framework Agreement, Nile disputes and dams, water law and policy issues, the Gezira Scheme and the Sudan South Sudan relations. Those articles are available at:

http://sacdo.com/forum/forum_topics_author.asp?fid=1&sacdoname=سلمان%20%أحمد%20%محمد%20%سلمان%20%/د&sacdoid=salman.salman

2. The Gezira Scheme in the Sudan: Evolution, Developments and the 2005 Gezira Act, The Sudanese Studies Centre, The State of the Country, The Tenth Sudanese Strategic Report, 2008-2009, (The Sudanese Studies Centre, Khartoum, Sudan), at 201.

3. Law and International and Regional Agreements for Regulation, Development and Utilization of International Watercourses in Future of Water Resources Forum – Strengthening Political and Popular Awareness About Water Issues (Centre for Future Studies, Khartoum, Sudan 2006) at 115.

Presentations in Arabic:

Have given a number of lectures in Arabic at a number of institutions and universities on various topics, including:

1. The Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam – Challenges and Opportunities, University of Khartoum, Faculty of Economic and Social Studies, January 2012.

2. Ethiopia Dams and the Nile Waters Disputes, Ambassador Jamal Mohamed Ahmed Cultural Forum, Khartoum, Sudan, June 2011.

3. The Nile Basin Fifty Years after the 1959 Agreement, and the Potential Implications of the Southern Sudan Referendum, Teeba Press Center, Khartoum, Sudan, May 2010; and Abdel Kareem Mirghani Cultural Center, Khartoum, Sudan, June 2010.

4. The Gezira Scheme in the Sudan: Evolution, Developments and the 2005 Gezira Act, available at:

http://www.sacdo.com/web/Categories/FeaturedArticles/salman_salman/PDF/GeziraSchemeArabicArticlesAll.pdf

http://www.sacdo.com/Video57/051008_Salman_Gezira/051008_Gezira.asp

5. Contemporary Water Problems and the Issue of Water Security in the Sudan, Sudanese Society for the preservation of the Environment, Khartoum, Sudan, June 2009, available at:

http://www.sacdo.com/web/forum/forum_posts.asp?TID=5420

http://www.sacdo.com/Video57/072107_Salman_philly/salman_philly.asp

6. Water Users' Associations and their Role in Water Conservation and Efficient Use, Gezira Scheme Farmers' Union, Wad Medani, Sudan, August 2007..

Books Published under my Editorial Responsibility under the Law, Justice, and Development Series of the World Bank:

Supervised and oversaw the publication of the following books as the Editor of the Law, Justice, and Development Series of the Legal Vice Presidency of the World Bank (2003 to 2009):

1. A Global View of Business Insolvency Systems (Jay Lawrence Westbrook et al, 2010).
2. Forest Law and Sustainable Development – Addressing Contemporary Challenges Through Legal Reform (Lawrence Christy et al, 2007).
3. Land Law Reform – Achieving Development Policy Objectives (John Bruce et al, 2006).
4. Legal Aspects of Financial Services Regulation and the Concept of a Unified Regulator (Kenneth Mwenda, 2006).
5. The Transit Regime for Landlocked States – International Law and Development Perspectives, 2006.

These books are in addition to the books authored or co-authored by me, and published under the same Series.

Review of my authored/co-authored Books

1. The World Bank Policy for Projects on International Waterways – An Historical and Legal Analysis, a review by Kenneth Mwenda, 13 Water Policy 588 (2011).
2. The World Bank Policy for Projects on International Waterways – An Historical and Legal Analysis, a review by Nina Eejima, titled “Going with the Flow or Swimming against the Current”, Law and Development newsletter, the World Bank, March 2011, available at:
<http://web.worldbank.org/WBSITE/EXTERNAL/TOPICS/EXTLAWJUSTICE/0,,contentMDK:22852250~pagePK:148956~piPK:149081~theSitePK:445634,00.html>
3. The World Bank Policy for Projects on International Waterways – An Historical and Legal Analysis, a review by Kishor Uprety, 26 International Journal of Water Resources Development, 701 (2010).
4. Regulatory Frameworks for Water Resources Management – A Comparative Study, review in the World Bank Practitioner Notes, Issue 9, June 2008.
5. Regulatory Frameworks for Water Resources Management – A Comparative Study, review by Julie Yeagle, 7 Sustainable Development Law & Policy 74 (2006).
6. The Human Right to Water –Legal and Policy Dimensions, review by Knut Bourquain, 40 Law and Politics in Africa and Asia, 383, (2007), (in German).
7. The Human Right to Water –Legal and Policy Dimensions, review by Gotz Reichert, 30 Heidelberg Journal of International Law 812 (2005), (in German).
8. The Human Right to Water – Legal and Policy Dimensions, review by Galit A. Sarfaty, 30 Yale Journal of International Law, 338 (2005).
9. The Human Right to Water–Legal and Policy Dimensions, review by Kishor Uprety, 21 International Journal of Water Resources Development, 217 (2005).
10. The Human Right to Water – Legal and Policy Dimensions, review by Kristen McGeeney and Melanie Nakagawa, Volume V, Sustainable Development Law & Policy, 71 (2005).

11. Conflict and Cooperation on South Asia's International Rivers – A Legal Perspective, review by Joyeeta Gupta, 13 Review of European Community & International Environmental Law, 235 (2004).
12. Conflict and Cooperation on South Asia's International Rivers – A Legal Perspective, review by Patricia Birnie, 13 Yearbook of International Environmental Law 855 (2002).
13. Conflict and Cooperation on South Asia's International Rivers – A Legal Perspective, review by Ch. Benarji, 43 Indian Journal of International Law, 389 (2003).
14. Conflict and Cooperation on South Asia's International Rivers – A Legal Perspective, review by Pravakar Adhikari, Spotlight, Nepal, June 27, 2003, at 30.
15. Groundwater – Legal and Policy Perspectives, review by Jennifer McKay, 27 Water International 301 (2002).
16. International Watercourses – Enhancing Cooperation and Managing Conflict, review by Hans Bandler, 21 The Environmentalist, 77(2001), available at:

January 1, 2015